MOUNTAIN BIKING

Situated in the Cairngorms National Park, you have a wealth of options to explore if you are a cyclist looking to get off the roads. Try the trails in neighbouring Atholl Estates or alternatively at nearby Craigower Hill, Faskally Woods or the Queens View.

For those looking for some downhill action, it is well worth driving the 36 mile north to Laggan Wolftrax, a dedicated Mountain Bike park with specialist trails of varying degrees of difficulty. In the beautiful Strathmashie Forest, Wolftrax provides everything for enthusiasts from a relatively easy green-graded trail to a black-run that is possibly the most technical to be found in Scotland.
